Hankamer School of Business Named Most Innovative Business School

European CEO magazine’s 2011 Global Business Education Awards named Baylor University’s Hankamer School of Business the Most Innovative Business School for the Southern United States Region. In naming Baylor, the magazine cited the school’s entrepreneurship, global perspective, student connections to the business community, family-owned values, high-caliber collaborations, community service, and well-rounded curriculum. Hankamer School of Business dean Terry Magness accepted the award at the London Stock Exchange.

The annual European CEO magazine awards recognize the world’s leading centers of excellence in business education. In addition to naming guests, the awards recognize programs with a range of criteria, including accreditation, curriculum, diversity, size and student-to-faculty ratios, graduation rates, admissions procedures, job placement potential, ranking in technology, holistic approach and sustainability. The award was published in December/January issue.

Baylor’s Entrepreneurship Program Ranked 3rd in the Nation

The undergraduate entrepreneurship program at Baylor University is ranked No. 3 in the country from its Entrepreneur Magazine. The eighth annual ranking ranks the nation’s top entrepreneurship programs. Baylor’s undergraduate and top 20 graduate programs for entrepreneurship business school are recognized on the basis of student rankings, student feedback, North American Entrepreneurship Award, undergraduate entrepreneurship, and rankings in the program in the Financial Times’ 2011 rankings.

Baylor’s Accounting Students Rank Nationally for CPA Pass Rates

Baylor University’s accounting program is one of the best in the country, according to the University Certified Public Accountant (CPA) exam released by the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA). Baylor graduate students ranked No. 6 in the nation for overall pass rate for first-time candidates, with 66.6 percent passing. On individual scores, Baylor ranked No. 5 in the nation on the auditing section with a pass rate of 81 percent, No. 3 in the nation on the financial accounting and reporting section with a pass rate of 85 percent and No. 7 in the nation on the regulation section with a pass rate of 77.3 percent. Graduate students also achieved the highest overall pass rate in Texas and the highest average score in Texas, a score of 81.1.

Baylor Executive MBA Program Earns National and International Recognition

For the second year, the Executive MBA program at Baylor University’s Hankamer School of Business has been named among the best programs in the world by Bloomberg Businessweek’s 2011 Executive MBA ranking. Baylor ranked 89th worldwide, and the program, which includes campuses in Dallas and Austin, also ranked third among programs in Texas. The program is also ranked 35th in the country for United States-based programs by the Financial Times’ 2011 rankings.
