WE ALL KNOW THAT ANY BUSINESS’ CUSTOMERS ARE VITAL TO THEIR SUCCESS. HOWEVER, SOUTHWEST AIRLINES, AS WITH BAYLOR UNIVERSITY, UNDERSTANDS OUR WORLD-CLASS PEOPLE ARE EQUALLY AS IMPORTANT AS OUR CUSTOMERS, IF NOT MORE SO.

My education and experiences at Baylor mirror the culture at Southwest in that opportunities for servant leadership and excellence abound, both within the company and the community. Both organizations foster a relentless drive to succeed, innovate and lift up all of those around us. It is with an esprit de corps that we at Southwest Airlines often find ourselves sharing our success and humbly giving back to our community with organizations such as the Ronald McDonald House. These values are woven into our DNA and are the cornerstone of our success. It is these same values that personally drew me to Baylor University and that I find common in Baylor alumni I’ve hired, worked with and had the good fortune to know. I can’t help but acknowledge the experiences at Baylor that prepared myself and prepares future graduates to take on the challenges of today and tomorrow as Leaders, both in our careers and in our communities.
